

March - July 2020 Consolidated Transit Weekday Ridership Trend

Baseline ridership 794,559 established from weekdays 2/24/20 to 2/28/20.

Based on SEPTA Key and farebox legacy data and excludes free interchange counts.

April 1st began free rear door boarding with fare collection waived for Bus, Trolley, and NHSL service.

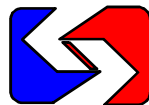

April 9th began widespread route and station closures with service remaining on a Saturday schedule.

May 18th began front door boarding and the return to fare collection, however capacity limits by vehicle type remain in effect.

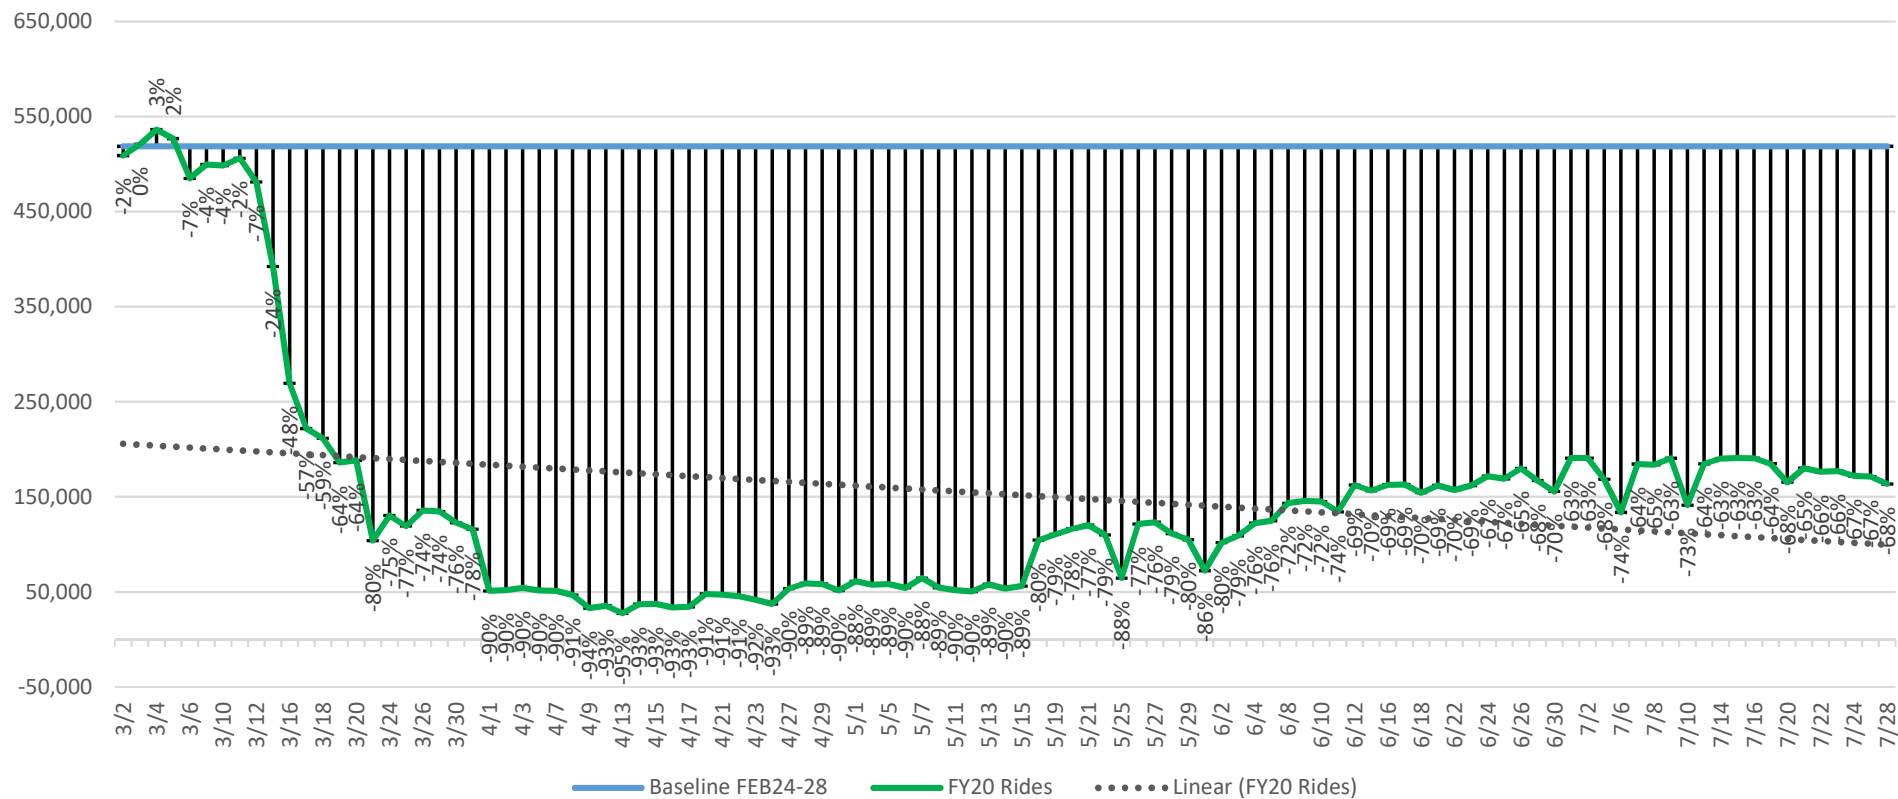

June 1st SEPTA suspended all service starting at noon

June 5th the greater Philadelphia region moved into the yellow phase lifting the stay-at-home order with fewer restrictions.

Daily ridership will change slightly due to the delay in farebox data collection.

Surface Transit Weekday Ridership Trend

Baseline ridership 518,802 established from weekdays 2/24/20 to 2/28/20.

Based on SEPTA Key and Farebox counts from bus, light rail, trackless and NHSL service.

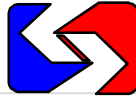

May 18th began front door boarding and the return to fare collection, however capacity limits by vehicle type remain in effect.

Subway/Elevated Transit Weekday Ridership Trend

Baseline of 275,757 established from the combined weekday ridership from 2/24/2020 to 2/28/2020
Based on SEPTA Key counts from MFL and BSL service.

March - July 2020 Consolidated Transit Weekend Ridership Trend

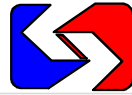

Baseline of 636,343 established from the combined weekend ridership from Saturday 2/22/20 and Sunday 2/23/20.

Based on SEPTA Key and farebox legacy data and excludes free interchange counts.

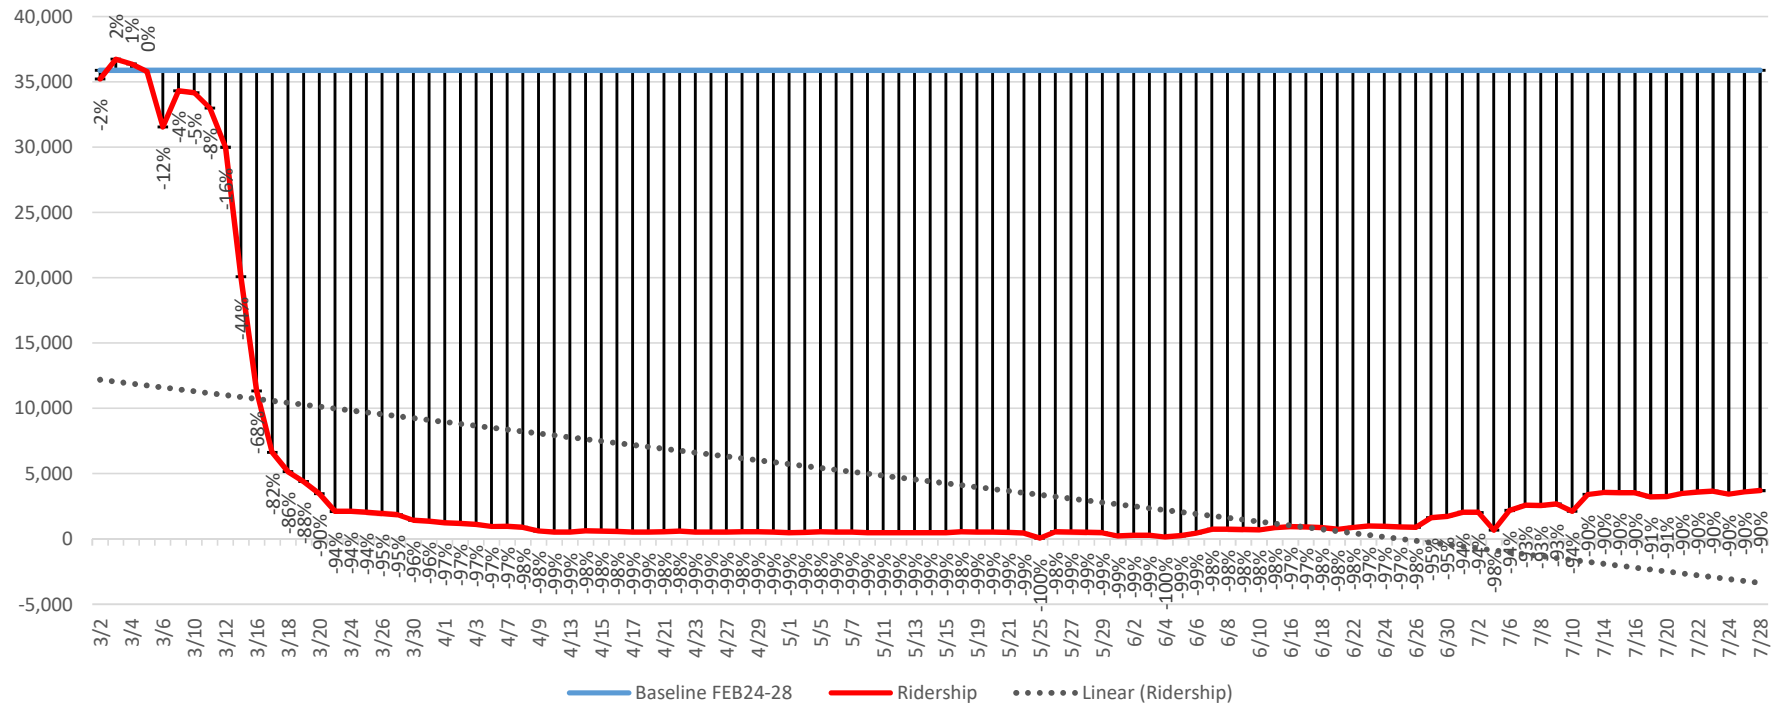

April 1st began free rear door boarding with fare collection waived for Bus, Trolley, and NHSL service.

April 9th began widespread route and station closures with service remaining on a Saturday schedule.

Weekend ridership will change slightly due to the delay in farebox data collection.

March - July 2020 Regional Rail CCP Weekday Ridership Trend

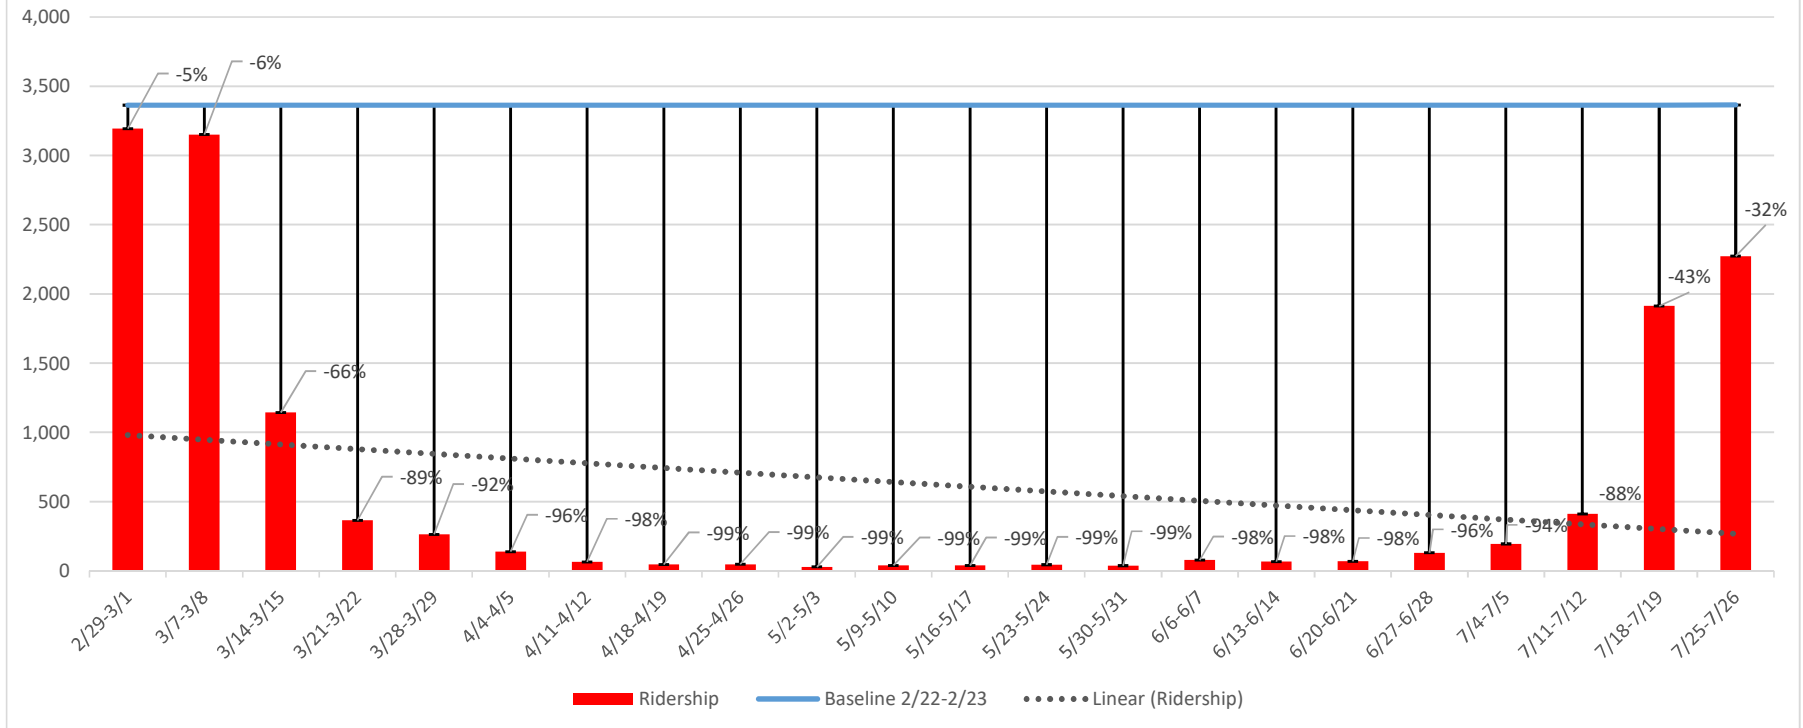

Baseline ridership 35,581 established from weekdays 2/24/20 to 2/28/20.

Based on SEPTA Key turnstile entries from the five Center City Philadelphia (CCP) stations.

Effective April 9th, service was suspended on six of the 13 Regional Rail lines.

March - July 2020 Regional Rail Weekend Ridership Trend

Baseline of 3,363 established from the combined weekend ridership from Saturday 2/22/20 and Sunday 2/23/20.

Based on data from CCP stations and RRD Lines.

CCP Stations freewheeled on weekends except Suburban Station

Effective April 9th, service was suspended on six of the 13 Regional Rail lines.